

2008 Cabernet Sauvignon Reviews

The Wine Advocate, December 2011

87 Points

"The 2008 Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Station is a flat-out delicious wine for the money. It shows excellent varietal character in its dark fruit, licorice and grilled herbs. Maturity: 2011-2014." -$22 -Antonio Galloni

2011 Cabernet Shootout,  89 points, www.affairsofthevine.com

"Beautiful color in the glass. Very deep and dark. Fruity plum aromas lead to lovely raspberry jam flavors with cocoa, coffee, and peppers added to the mix mid-palate. Nice wine."

Wine Enthusiast, September 2011

87 Points

"Lots of rich, spicy flavors in this smooth Cabernet. It offers a mouthburst of ripe cherries, blackberries, cassis, bacon and pepper, and is soft and rather sweet." S.H.

2011 Tasters Guild Int'l Wine Judging,

"Double Gold Medal"

"Fresh black cherry spice, floral aromas with sweet cigar, tart cherry and tight tannins on the finish. From a vintage that was stingy on its yield, but generous on complex quality. Pairing - grilled cheese, smoky bacon, and ripe tomato sandwich."

The 2007 Vintage

2011 Cabernet Shootout,  90 points, www.affairsofthevine.com

"Lovely rich, ripe, round dark fruit aromatics that carry onto the palate showing red cherry, cassis, and raspberry with a slight herbaceousness. Caramel, light toasted oak, and vanilla show through on the finish on this smooth textured wine."

Sue Straight the Wine-Wench, 5 out of 5 Stars, www.wine-wench.com

"OMG! Buy some! Buy some now! Mouthwatering aromas of ripe cherry, blackberry, blackcurrant, spearmint and cigar box delight the nose and lure the taster into a luscious mouthful of consistent flavors. Long, delicious finish. Remember that early nude of Marilyn Monroe undulating across a red satin sheet? This wine is all that and more..."

"The surprisingly good 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon reveals an attractive deep color, ripe fruit and unexpected intensity for a wine in this price range. The tannins are a little chunky, and the wine is very good and well-worth buying. Drink it over the next several years. This is a reliable producer of inexpensive Napa wines." –Robert Parker

The Connoisseurs' Guide to California Wine, December 2010

89 Points- "1 Puff & a Good Value"

"One of the great pleasures to be had in working our ways through flight after flight of new wines each month is the occasional discovery of especially noteworthy values that simply outperform at the price. This new Cabernet from Napa Station is such a wine, and it's layered combination of lovely, crème-brulee oak and incisive varietal currants could serve as a model for many costing many times as much."

Wine and Spirits Magazine, October 2010

"Best Buy"

Produced from vineyards in Rutherford, Oakville, Stag's Leap, Atlas Peak and the Los Carneros regions....classic bordeaux- style blend. "Sweet and super-ripe, this is an inexpensive version of a soft, oaky Napa Valley cabernet. Great with barbecued beef ribs."

The 2006 Vintage

The Wine Advocate, December 2010

"The Solidly Made 2006 Cabernet Sauvignon reveals pleasant, slightly herbaceous plum, black cherry, and black currant fruit along with hints of underbrush and white chocolate. Drink this well-made, straightforward Cabernet over the next 3-4 years." –Robert Parker
