4 out of 5 Stars

"Buy some, buy some now! This is a $40 Chardonnay in a $14 dress! Crème Brulee, ripe pear, apple and toast with just a dab of butter delight the senses from the first sniff, through the balanced mouth and on through the finish." – Sue Straight, aka "The Wine-Wench"

The 2007 Vintage

The Wine Advocate, December 2009

"Excellent Value"

"Readers looking for Excellent Values should check out Napa Station. Their delicious 2007 Chardonnay exhibits plenty of fresh citrus interwoven with hints of white peaches and apples in its natural, lively, pure personality. Medium-bodied and zesty, it is ideal for drinking over the next 1-2 years. Two-thirds of this cuvee was blended and aged in stainless steel and one-third in French oak." –Robert Parker

The Connoisseurs' Guide to California Wine, October 2009

87 Points- "1 Puff & a Good Value"

"...Nicely ripened fruit with mildly creamy oak... This Chardonnay hits the varietal mark and invites drinking now. GOOD VALUE."

Wine News Magazine,

"88 Points"

"Spritzly yellow hue. Forward aromas of dark honey, caramel apple and vanilla. Supple and juicy with apple and peach nectar flavors. Lingering sweetness; however, finishes on a dry note."
